PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Project Distribution and Marketing

When you have completed a project it is important to be able to have a client view it easily and also for them to have a copy for duplication. It is also important to preserve your films for possible inclusion in your portfolio.

ON LINE DISTRIBUTION

Find and download the specs for these on-line video distribution channels:

Vimeo.com

Youtube.com

Establish an account and a “channel” at each of these sites.

Encode these projects for each site: Projects 1, 2, 3

Upload and tag your videos.

DVD MASTER

In DVD Studio Pro:

Open a new project

Create a menu

Import Projects 1, 2, 3

Create buttons and links to the projects

Create and original graphic background for the menu

Add a music loop under the menu

Create the DVD files

Burn two DVDs: Hand one in on Monday, March 1st at end of class and keep one.
